

The Munro & Patrick Band emerges from the core of the Canadian prairies, with an awarded and collective musical history spanning decades. Fronted by Heidi Munro & Scott Patrick, this elite lineup of incredible musicians seamlessly fuses blues/rock, folk, soul, R&B and a hint of jazz into an electric musical experience, carving them out a unique niche in the Canadian music scene.

Their sound, characterized by soulful and fiery vocals, gritty and spot on guitar and slide riffs, a rhythm section that grooves with undeniable energy, is further elevated by a brass infusion that adds a touch of hip Americana flair. With a vintage edge to their music, reminiscent of the effervescent and hopeful vibes of the early 70's jam bands, Munro & Patrick have created an infectious, feel-good, long overdue musical energy and electric stage performance, captivating audiences across the country.

As a duo, Munro & Patrick have an undeniable stage chemistry that oozes confidence and a passion for the music they make, the stage, and their audience. Munro & Patrick will make you feel like you finally came home, you'll smile...a lot.
